FULL-STACK DEVELOPER

Freelancer, 25 to 40 h per week · Remote

Xorbit is a software company from Vienna. Our product family, MeetinX for video meetings and BookinX for online booking, is built for companies that value quality, design and simplicity. We work fully remote, as one international team, and give every person real ownership from day one.

You build new features for MeetinX and BookinX across frontend and backend, from the waiting room to the customer area.

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develop features with React, Next.js and Node.js
- Design clean APIs and data models
- Write tests and review code
- Care about performance and accessibility

QUALIFICATIONS AND SKILLS

- 3+ years with React and Node.js
- Experience with PostgreSQL
- Eye for good design and details
- English C1
